NEGATIVE THOUGHTS

01

WHERE DOES THIS THOUGHT STEM FROM?

Identify the root cause of this thought. Where did it come from? Is this a fear? Has someone spoken this to you? Did it come from something you watched or witnessed?

02

IS THERE ANY TRUTH IN THIS THOUGHT?

Sometimes negative thoughts can be lies with a little truth in them. What is the likelihood of this thought becoming reality?

03

WHAT DID GOD SAY?

Usually negative thoughts go directly against what God has already said. Listen closely to the negative thought and seek out God's word on the topic. For example, if the negative thought says "you'll never be free" then you can seek what God has said about freedom.

04

IS THIS THOUGHT BASED ON FACT OR FEELING?

Feelings are not facts. How you feel can definitely bring on negative thoughts, but you have to challenge your feelings.

05

ARE MY NEEDS BEING MET?

Most of the time, unmet needs can attribute to negative thoughts. Take a step back and see where your needs aren't being met.

Self-Reflection Questions

pt. 1

What is the difference between responding and reacting in your eyes?

Why do you think a healthy mind is important for purpose?

Where are you mentally?

Have you forgiven yourself for your past mistakes?

In the past week, what has made you angry? Explain the situation.

Define grace. Are you giving yourself grace?

Do you allow God to meet you in your mental health?

Look up where the mind starts. Write down your thoughts on this topic.

What are you most grateful for?

What is causing your emotions to be in turmoil?

Is there any past regrets you're holding onto?

Define love in the Bible. Are you being this way towards yourself? How can you do better in this area?

What is it that you have to remove to have peace in your mind?

How often do you take breaks?

What does your ideal day look like?

Self-Reflection Questions

pt. 11

Describe your self-care routine.

What made you smile today?

Is Christ a true priority in your life? Why/why not?

Have you forgiven yourself for your past mistakes?

Which feelings do you feel the strongest? Why do you think that is?

Are your emotions your indicators or your dictators?

How do you treat yourself when you're having a moment?

Do you feel that crying is a weakness? Why/why not?

What would it take for your mental health to always be well?

Is there anyone you haven't forgiven? This includes yourself.

Do you feel like a burden?

How do you handle your emotions?

Are you able to think clearly most days? Why/why not?

Do you believe you're worthy?

Why do you procrastinate?
